Mr. Richard Kleindienst
Deputy Attorney General
The Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Kleindienst,

Because of your recent request to Mr. Fensterwald, I assure you that the subject of this letter is not in litigation and I would prefer that it not reach that stage. I wrote you because, under the law, you are the person I am required to address.

Bonnie Caire, then of New Orleans, was an associated of Sergio Arcacha Smith and others who figured in the investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy. Lee Harvey Oswald also applied to him for a job. Oswald and Caire's office address masked in his addressbook. Caire and Arcacha ran an anti-Castro, fund-raising organization that used an address Oswald also used. Arcacha was the New Orleans head of an organization established, directed and financed by the CIA.

Caire's office address was then the Gigali Building, at the corner of Camp and Canal Streets, New Orleans. His home address was 615 Dumaine Street. The address his organization ("The Crusade to Free Cuba"), Oswald and Arcacha all used is 544 Camp Street, which is identical with a side entrance used by the FBI to mask this address, 531 Lafayette Street.

Caire claims to have been interrogated for 100 hours. The National Archives says it has no single FBI report or even reference to him. I request copies of all relevant data. I presume it should have been denied the Warren Commission and would prefer to believe it is misfiled somewhere.

Caire's home address is less than two short blocks from Dumaine and Decatur, where Oswald picketed the carrier Essex in the early summer of 1963, a rather intriguing coincidence, in view of the foregoing. In the course of its investigation, which was not for law-enforcement purposes, the FBI obtained a copy of the leaflet Oswald then distributed, identified a fingerprint on it as not Oswald's, but, if it ever told the Warren Commission whose fingerprint it was, I have been able to find no record of it. I therefore ask if this fingerprint was that of anyone in any way connected with the assassination investigation. I would like to know whose it is, for there are also those who should have been connected with the investigation and appear not to have been.

Should you desire that I submit forms, of course, I will. However, I do hope these unessential formalities can be dispensed with unless and until there is disagreement between us.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
